A Walk in Burbage Woods

We are lucky to have easy access to many different areas of countryside locally. I love to walk around Burbage Common and Woods among other sites available to us.

One summer's day last year we drove to Burbage Woods . Immediately upon opening the car doors we were greeted by a cacophony of bird song. They all seemed to be singing as if to express their pure joy of simply being alive. As we strolled along the footpaths it was wonderful to see all the trees and plants in their various stages of growth and development. The summer sunshine was giving a dappled light through the thick cover of leaves.

We felt a great sense of peace and a real closeness to God through his amazing creation.

What a wonderful world we are privileged to live in .

Thank you Lord for all things bright and beautiful.
